

THE CURIOUS INCIDENT OF THE DOG IN THE NIGHT-TIME

A new play by Simon Stephens. Based on the novel by Mark Haddon.

11 January — 18 February
Arts Centre Melbourne, Playhouse
Audi Forum Nights: 16 & 30 January

Fifteen-year-old Christopher Boone has an extraordinary brain – exceptional at maths, while ill-equipped to interpret everyday life. He has never ventured alone beyond the end of his road. But his detective work, forbidden by his father, takes Christopher on a frightening journey that upturns his world.

THE CHILDREN

by Lucy Kirkwood

3 February — 10 March
Southbank Theatre, The Sumner
Audi Forum Nights: 12 & 19 February

In an isolated cottage on the English coast, two retired nuclear physicists are living a quiet existence. Life is tough, but they have worked all their lives for their retirement and now they are determined to enjoy it. Until one day, an old friend and colleague arrives, bringing memories of the past and a confronting challenge for the future.

ABIGAIL'S PARTY

by Mike Leigh

17 March — 21 April
Southbank Theatre, The Sumner
Audi Forum Nights: 26 March & 2 April

You're invited to the suburban drinks party from hell. Desperate-to-impress Beverly and her real estate agent husband Laurence are the hosts. Over cheese and pineapple sticks, Demis Roussos records and copious amounts of alcohol, we witness one disastrous evening of social awkwardness, outrageous flirting, cringeworthy one-upmanship and hilarious put-downs.

THE HOUSE OF BERNARDA ALBA adapted by Patricia Cornelius, after Federico García Lorca

25 May — 7 July

Arts Centre Melbourne, Fairfax Studio

Audi Forum Nights: 4 & 11 June

With their mining-mogul father dead, the Alba household is in mourning. All four daughters have been called home to pay their respects, but the future seems wildly uncertain for all but the eldest sister, who has inherited a fortune and is engaged to the local heartthrob. As tensions rise and tempers flare, will any of them have the power to alter their own destinies?

GLORIA

by Branden Jacobs-Jenkins

16 June — 21 July

Southbank Theatre, The Sumner

Audi Forum Nights: 25 June & 2 July

Editorial assistant Dean stumbles into work, hungover from a party at the home of the 'office freak' Gloria. As his ambitious group of co-workers squabble, complain and generally avoid work, it's just another day at the office of a fancy Manhattan magazine – until suddenly it's not. Strap yourself in for the breathtaking new play that will have everyone talking.

A DOLL'S HOUSE, PART 2

by Lucas Hnath
11 August — 15 September
Southbank Theatre, The Sumner
Audi Forum Nights: 20 & 27 August

In 1879, Nora Helmer handed her husband her keys and wedding ring and left home, slamming the door behind her. But what ever happened to this famous literary figure from Henrik Ibsen's A Doll's House? 15 years later, Nora is now a successful feminist writer returning to get the divorce her husband Torvald never filed for. All she needs is the paperwork.

THE ARCHITECT

by Aidan Fennessy
27 September — 31 October
Southbank Theatre, The Sumner
Audi Forum Nights: 8 & 15 October

Hiring a temporary carer requires some serious vetting. When Helen's partner John heads off on a brief overseas trip she takes in a dubious young drifter and jack-of-all-trades to look after her through her illness. As an unexpected bond forms between them, tables begin to turn and Helen faces choices that are both intimate and monumental.

ASTROMAN

by Albert Belz

27 October — 8 December

Arts Centre Melbourne, Fairfax Studio

Audi Forum Nights: 5 & 12 November

Thirteen-year-old Jiembra Djaló and his brother Sonny are the new kids in town, and while Jiembra may be a video game whizz and maths genius, he's always getting into strife. A friendship with the owner of the local arcade and a chance at gaming glory could see him change his life forever, but could also mean leaving behind what means most – his brother and adoring mother.

TWELFTH NIGHT

by William Shakespeare

12 November — 29 December

Southbank Theatre, The Sumner

Audi Forum Nights: 19 & 26 November

This exquisite comedy is a timeless masterpiece, bursting at the seams with passion and music. Yet it starts with a twin sister and brother shipwrecked, grief-stricken, both believing the other to be drowned. Shakespeare's lyrical fantasy slams poetry into melancholia, in a whirligig of capricious farce as everything spins out of control towards a sense of harmony.

WORKING WITH CHILDREN

by Nicola Gunn

30 August — 29 September

Southbank Theatre, The Lawler

Audi Forum Night: 3 September

Just imagine a woman who works with children, but has a secret she's incredibly ashamed of. Now imagine a man who works with children and is going through a messy divorce. Imagine they're both working with children but there are regulations in place to protect the children at their school from all things inappropriate, like dark emotions or the vulnerability of reality.

HUNGRY GHOSTS

by Jean Tong

3 — 19 May

Southbank Theatre, The Lawler

The MH370 disaster. Malaysia's billion-dollar 1MDB scandal. These events had international ramifications, but for our unnamed protagonist they were earth shattering. When you're a young, queer Chinese-Malaysian Australian, how do you work out where you belong in the world? Criss-crossing between storylines, Hungry Ghosts offers an unconventional take on contemporary life.
